

Gauntlet MEMORIAL

DEDICATION

TO OUR TEACHERS, FOR THE COUNTLESS THINGS
THEY HAVE GIVEN US, EXPECTING NO THANKS
BUT TO SEE THEIR WISDOM AND STRENGTH PRESENT IN THE
ADULT LIVES
WHICH THEY HAVE HELPED TO SHAPE.

*The
world around us changes . . .
all
tomorrows we waited for have become ~ today.
And
here
we stand,
changed also
and in so very many ways.*

*We look around us and our world no longer seems the same.
No one knows, no one can name, the one moment, the one person, that opened the door to these new horizons we now look upon.
Indeed, each experience, each person along the way – has guided us towards this day.*

We pause now for a moment before this magic door of youth.

*It is the springtime of our lives and we begin to explore this timeless freedom, and the world that is ours.
Different paths call us in so many directions; and we move through the magic door taking the hopes and dreams of youth with us.*

*Soon, we will be moving through the corridors of time
somewhere else,
maybe far away,
or close by . . .*

*But never here again.
Still, all that we have given up and taken in, all the smiles and moments we have brought one another, will remain the bond between us.*

*Now let us be on our way careful at first,
soon we will thrive,
with the power of being young in the springtime of our lives.*

Pop's Hop

The Pop's Hop is our annual Father-Daughter dance sponsored by the Fathers' Club. At this year's dance held in October, the prevalent attitude was "share and share alike", as fathers were passed from daughter to daughter during the dances. At the end of the fun and profitable evening, prizes were awarded to the best dancers. Fathers and daughters both are looking forward to next year's dance.

You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown

It was a dark and stormy night, but not if you were lucky enough to be in the audience for this year's Drama Extravaganza! Charles Schulz's "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" is a light-hearted comedy centered around the growing-up lives of the Peanuts Gang, particularly witty, wealthy Charlie Brown. Under the direction of Mr. Carl Louis Hall, the play was enacted with a beautiful simplicity which enchanted the audience. Excellent choreography and musical coordination, along with professional-looking scenery rounded out the picture and contributed to the overwhelming success of this year's production.

Hearts Dance

The Hearts Dance is an annual Valentine's Day fun fair sponsored by the Student Council. This year the event which is traditionally Sate Hawkins style was held on February 1. As usual a live band provided entertainment and a buffet was set up in the cafeteria.

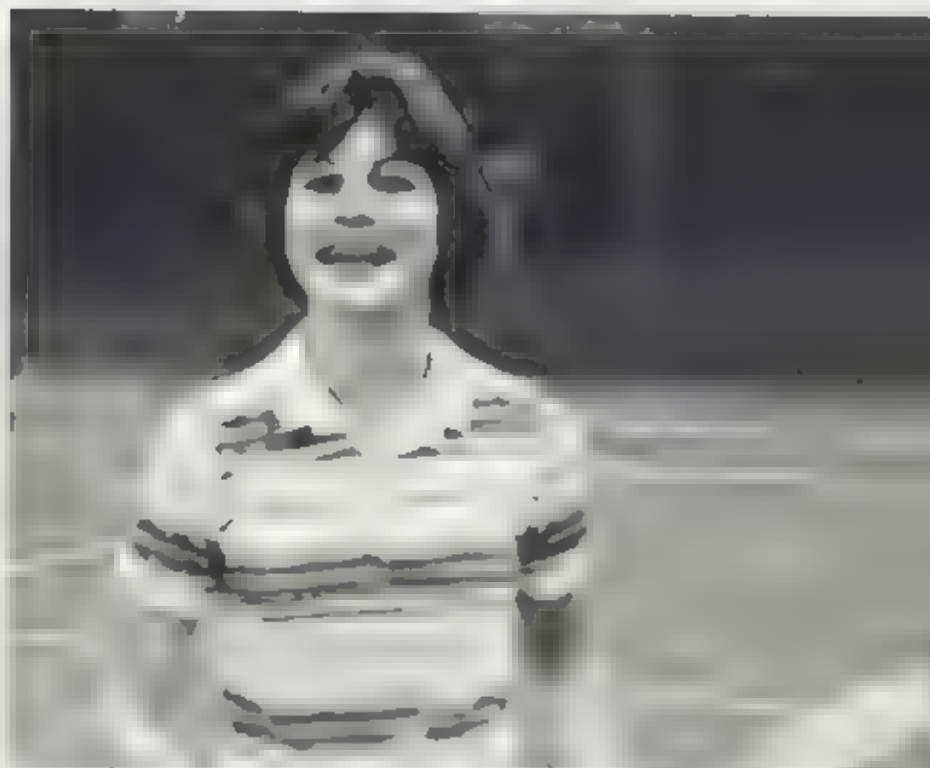

A new club was organized this year by Ms. Giardina and Mr. Ascutto. This fall, the Tennis Club met every Monday and Wednesday afternoon at West Rock Tennis Club to play singles, doubles, and round robin matches. The active interest of the thirty to forty people involved, if carried through to next year, may lead to extramural involvement.

John Ford plays backhand.

Religious Activities

Religious activities at Augsburg began on Friday morning with a special Mass for the days and other important events in the week-end retreat and day of prayer. Mass in parts as well as a variety of religious activities and other events. The day of prayer activities included a guest speaker, Fr. Bruce Kitter, Minister of Covenant House and Under 21, a series of devotional and monetary collections to support the Kitter programs and the speaker at a gathering to reverse the 1973 Supreme Court ruling on abortion.

I was the first to report this to the writer in reference to our 3rd annual pre Tournament. The 1979-80 presented just that as our team of hard cyclical

a deaf man sat in a meadow rocking in time to the music coming from the grass — yet — heard it not — merely — listened to his creatures crying in his head.

a blind man sits by a river over which the sun rises.
 a blaze of glory in pink and yellow.
 touching the bones of his life (dead for decades) but he is not interested.

a mute will sit on a mountain-top, signing his life with his hands.
 but not wishing for others to know what he is trying to say. nor caring whether they do or not.
 for he — merely — will be talking to himself.

Ring Night

Next to graduation, Ring Night is the most memorable ceremony at Acadia. Started in 1964, Ring Night is a celebration of the year's achievements and a time for reflection. It is a night when we appreciate the past.

The night was held at the Acadia High School gymnasium. Many students and parents attended the ceremony. The night was a success.

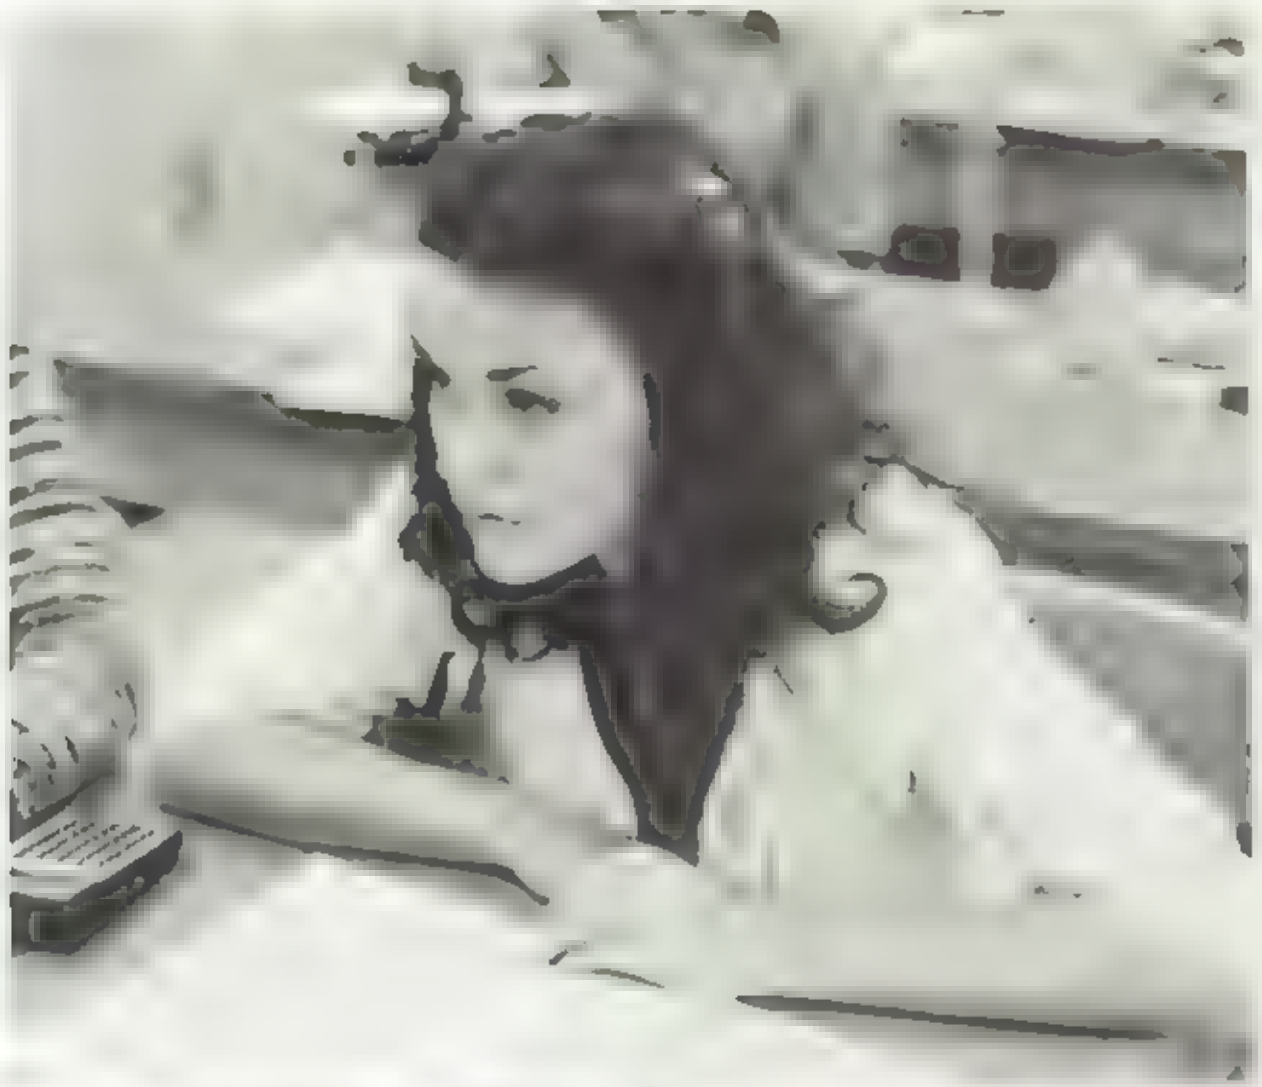

The Mass was celebrated by Fr. [Name] and was attended by many parents as well as students.

Congratulations to the Class of 1980

"Progress is impossible without change; and those who cannot change their minds cannot change anything."

— George Bernard Shaw

At St. Thomas Aquinas College, we are accustomed to change—we've been changing for more than a quarter of a century! And changing for the better! Flexibility has been the key to our development, and our students have played large parts in the process. We began in 1952 as a three-year teacher education college with thirty students. Today, we offer twenty-three majors, and the student body—one thousand full and part-time students—is still small enough to give you the personal attention you'll benefit from best. So . . . we are young . . . we are small. . . . we are concerned about you, the individual! Those three ingredients should make your change all the more comfortable. After all, a college is nothing more than a large group of individuals. At STAC, your individuality will remain intact

A FRIEND, A PHOTOGRAPH, AND A TEAR, ANOTHER MEMORY, ANOTHER YEAR, WHEN THE PARTIES AND PROMS FADE INTO THE PAST, IT'S THE SMILES AND TEARS WE KNOW WILL LAST, A FRIEND WHO WAS THERE WHEN YOU WERE DOWN, TO CHEER YOU UP, TO BE YOUR CLOWN, OR WHEN SOMEONE YOU LOVED WENT AWAY, YOU THOUGHT YOU COULDN'T LAST THE DAY, IT'S TIMES LIKE THESE WE'VE CAPTURED HERE, THOSE SPECIAL TIMES YOU HOLD MOST DEAR, UNTIL ALL YOU HAVE LEFT FOR REMEMBRANCE ARE THESE, THESE PHOTOGRAPHS & MEMORIES,

To My Friends

*I love you not only for what you are,
But for what I am when I am with you.
I love you not only for what you have made of yourself,
But for what you have made of me.
I love you because you have done More than any creed could have done to make me good,
And more than any fate could have done to make me happy.
You have done it without a touch,
Without a word, without a sign.
You have done it by being yourself.
Perhaps that is what being a friend means after all.*

Danny

September 23, 1962 — March 28, 1980

Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves.

Do not seek the answers that cannot be given you because you would not be able to live them and the point is to live everything.

*Live the questions now;
perhaps you will gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the answers.*

Tom

February 1, 1962 — March 28, 1980

You.

*You are the one By your smile and kindness
By your laughter and voice
You have given to me
What I so desperately need
You have given me love
You've given me light
You gave me a part of yourself
For which I can truly say thanks
You have given to me
A new feeling for life
I can't always be happy
At times I must be sad
But with you by my side
I can take everything in stride*

Because

*You have given me love
You've given me light
You gave me yourself
A truly unselfish sacrifice
You are my first love
So please do understand I am finding myself With each step that I take I want these steps Whether they be big or small
To be made with you Because I have found myself Through being with you And I can truly say
"I love you".*

I'm glad I got to know you.
You've made study a lot more fun than it would have been. I wish you the best of luck in all your years to come and many happy years too. Have a very nice summer and I hope to see you next year.

LOVE
Chrissy

Dear
Matt
what can I say?
its really been an experience for me this year, especially with you and your bad boyz when you all really be. I'm glad we want friends and I know you friends. I know I'm boyz you over the touch and be good, I don't say keep in summer and be good, I don't a great summer and be good, I don't why I wrote that, I guess I'd make it sound good.

Love always Diarr

P.S. thats a face, hair, everything!
